If an employee feels he/she has sustained a work-related injury or illness, he/she should notify their immediate supervisor right away. If this is during routine business hours on Monday or Tuesday from 6:30 – 4:00 pm, the employee may be evaluated and treated at the Beaumont Site Medical Clinic. If Wednesday through Sunday or after routine business hours and/or the employee requires immediate assistance, the employee or the supervisor assisting the employee should call x5222 to request the Response team to respond. The supervisor should also call Security if an ambulance is needed.

For all injuries and illnesses, as soon as possible, Unit/Area supervision will notify the Site Safety Department. In addition, Site Medical will be notified so that Case Management can begin (409-280-6027 Mobile, 409-981-5032 Beaumont, 409-960-5642 Port Arthur).

Minor (first aid) after hour's treatment may be administered by the Beaumont Site 1st Responders. Injuries or illnesses requiring more than minor care (first aid) and/or outside of regular business hours will need to be transported to the most appropriate Emergency Rooms, which are:
