BASF extends 0% grower financing program for entirety of 2027 growing season

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, NC, November 12, 2026 – In preparation for the 2027 growing season, BASF is expanding its offer of 0% financing on qualifying purchases of participating BASF brands. New for this year, qualifying farmers will have access to 0% APR financing on crop protection purchases for the entirety of the 2027 growing season (until September 30, 2027). By offering 0% for the entire season, BASF is allowing qualified growers more opportunity when planning for 2027.

“Farmers need flexibility as they make decisions for the season ahead, and that includes having options that work with their operation and timeline,” said Brady Spangenberg, Marketing Director, BASF Agricultural Solutions U.S. “BASF is committed to supporting farmers doing the Biggest Job on Earth by providing greater convenience when they purchase and pay, and offering 0% financing for the entire season helps them focus on planning a successful 2027.”

Growers are encouraged to take advantage of early-season purchasing to start planning for a strong finish, no matter the environmental conditions. The 2027 Grower Finance Program also offers qualified farmers 2.99% APR financing on qualifying InVigor® and InVigor Gold™ canola seed purchases through September 30, 2027, and 1.99% APR for qualifying FiberMax® and Stoneville® cotton seed purchased from February 1, 2027, through September 30, 2027. Terms and conditions apply.
