As an active member of the Scheme who joined before 1 June 2009, a partner's pension is payable when you die (unless you have opted out in order to receive a full DC Account refund instead).

The Scheme will normally pay a pension to your nominated partner of 30% of your Pensionable Salary. You can tell the Trustee who you would like to nominate by completing this form.

Once you have completed and signed this form, please email it to: basf@buck.com

Alternatively, once you have signed the form, you can send it to:

BASF
Buck (Bristol)
PO Box 319
Mitcheldean
GL14 9BF

You should also keep a copy for your records.

Your nominated partner must be your spouse or civil partner or someone you live with at the date of your death, in an enduring relationship and who is financially dependent on you or inter-dependent on you. The Trustee's decision on whether your partner meets these criteria is final.

Please note that if you are married or have entered into a registered civil partnership when you die, contracted-out benefits must be used to provide pensions for your legal spouse or civil partner in accordance with regulations.

If you would like to nominate your partner to receive a pension from the Scheme on your death, please enter their details in the box below.
