Whatever your stage in life, it's important to think about how you'll support yourself financially when you stop working.

As a new member, you will have some choices and this leaflet will help you think through each one.

Make the most of your membership.

How the Scheme works

When you join BASF, you automatically become a member of the DC Section of the Scheme.

What does 'DC' mean?

DC stands for 'Defined Contribution', a type of pension where you build up savings that you can then use to provide an income in retirement. The value of the benefits you receive at retirement will depend on several factors including how much is paid in, investment performance, any charges, the age you access your savings and the type of income you choose. In our Scheme, your pension savings build up in your DC Account.

Pay as much as you can

When joining the Scheme, you can choose how much you want to pay into your DC Account from your pensionable salary*. The maximum BASF will pay is 10%.

There are four matching contribution options for you to choose from:

When you pay...	3%	4%	5%	6% +
	+	+	+	+
BASF pays...	4%	6%	8%	10%
	=	=	=	=
Total paid	7%	10%	13%	16% +

If you don't tell us how much you want to pay, your contribution will be set as 6%, and BASF will contribute 10%.

You can pay more than 6%. Any contributions over 6% are called Additional Voluntary Contributions (AVCs). BASF pays a maximum of 10%.

Can I change what I pay?

Yes, during March every year and mid-year if you have a lifestyle event (such as getting married or having a child).

How are contributions made?

Through Pension Salary Sacrifice – a more efficient way of making contributions. It means that you save on the amount of National Insurance you pay, so your take-home pay is higher. Your contributions will be automatically made by Pension Salary Sacrifice unless you choose to opt out.

* Your pensionable salary is the pay used to calculate your pension benefits, as defined in the Scheme rules. This is normally annual basic salary plus fixed overtime and permanent or guaranteed shift allowance, but excluding bonus, variable overtime and other fluctuating payments.

What to do next:
Choose how much you want to pay, then complete and return your Joining the Scheme and Pension Salary Sacrifice Form.

There are two investment routes for you to choose from. You can change where you are invested any time in the Pension Portal (see the back page).
