BASF Aktiengesellschaft
as amended July 2004

This English language version of the Articles of Association of BASF Aktiengesellschaft is a translation of the Satzung der BASF Aktiengesellschaft. The German version is the authentic and binding document. This translation is for convenience only.

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Name and Registered Office

1. The name of the Company is BASF Aktiengesellschaft.
2. The registered office of the Company is at Ludwigshafen am Rhein.

Article 2 Purposes of the Company

1. Purposes for which the Company is established are:
 - activity in the field of chemistry and related branches of science and technology,
 - the production, processing, sale of and dealing in chemical products of all kinds, in particular petrochemicals and inorganics, fertilizers, industrial and special chemicals, intermediates, plastics, synthetic fibers and fiber intermediates, colorants and finishing products,
 - the provision of services in the field of health and nutrition, in particular the production, sale of and dealing in pharmaceuticals, crop protection agents, seeds, vitamins, biotechnological products, pharmacologicals and products for animal nutrition and health,
 - the extraction, production, sale of and dealing in oil, natural gas, mineral oil products and energies,
 - the development, production and sale of products and the provision of services in the area of environmental technology, in particular in the field of waste and sewage treatment and disposal,
 - the design, production and sale of technological equipment and plant and the provision of other engineering and design services, and the carrying out of any other tasks incidental to the activity in said fields or conducive to promoting the same.

2. The Company is authorized to establish branches both in Germany and abroad, and to establish and acquire business undertakings the objectives of which are consistent with, related to or conducive to promoting those under para. 1 hereof, both in Germany and abroad, or to acquire interests therein.

Article 3 Share Capital and Shares

1. The share capital of the Company amounts to 1,425,007,129.60 euros (in words: one thousand four hundred twenty-five million seven thousand one hundred and twenty-nine euros and sixty cents).
2. The shares of the Company are shares without denomination. The share capital of the Company is divided into 556,643,410 shares.
3. The shares shall be made out to bearer. This provision shall, unless a resolution to the contrary is passed, also apply in the event of any capital increase.
4. The shares of the Company shall be evidenced in individual or collective certificates in accordance with the stipulation of the Board of Executive Directors. The form and content of the share certificates and of the dividend coupons and talons shall be determined by the Board of Executive Directors with the consent of the Supervisory Board.
5. The shareholder's right to certificated evidence of his holding is excluded.
6. In the event of a capital increase, the rate at which new shares shall participate in profits may be determined in a manner other than provided for in Article 60, Stock Corporation Law.
7. The Board of Executive Directors shall be authorized, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, to increase the company's share capital, on a one-off basis or in portions on a number of occasions,

Note:

Share capital reduced by way of cancellation of shares by 29,806,080.00 euros and 9,625,600.00 euros to 1,385,575,449.60 euros (as of December 14, 2004)

Note:

After cancellation of 11,643,000 and 3,760,000 shares: 541,240,410 shares (as of December 14, 2004)

by up to a total of 500,000,000 euros by issuing new shares against contributions in cash or in kind (authorized capital) up to May 1, 2009. The new shares may be taken over by a bank appointed by the Board of Executive Directors with instructions to offer them to the shareholders (indirect subscription right).

The Board of Executive Directors shall be authorized to issue up to 15,000,000 of these new shares to employees of the company and of companies associated with the company. To this extent, the legal subscription right of shareholders shall be excluded.

The Board of Executive Directors shall also be authorized, with the approval of the Supervisory Board, to exclude the legal subscription right of shareholders,

- a) in order to acquire companies, parts of companies or holdings in companies in return for the transfer of shares in appropriate individual cases,
- b) as far as this is necessary to prevent dilution in order to grant the owners of option certificates and the creditors of convertible bonds that are issued by the company or its affiliates in connection with an authorization granted to the Board of Executive Directors by the Annual Meeting or to grant the holders of option rights issued in connection with share option programs for senior executives submitted to the Annual Meetings on April 29, 1999 and April 26, 2001 to the extent that would be due to them after exercising the option or conversion right or after fulfilling conversion obligations, and
- c) in order to use any residual amounts

In the case of capital increases in return for cash contributions, the Board of Executive Directors shall also be able to exclude the legal subscription right of shareholders, if the issue price of the new shares is not substantially lower than the stock exchange price and the number of shares issued as a whole under this authorization is not more than 10 percent of the share capital on the date of issue.

8. The share capital shall be conditionally increased in the amount of up to 6,912.00 euros, divided into 2,700 shares. The increase in the conditional capital shall be limited to the extent to which the former shareholders of Wintershall Aktiengesellschaft make use of their conversion rights in connection with the integration of Wintershall Aktiengesellschaft into BASF Aktiengesellschaft. The shares shall be issued at the ratio of 94.5 shares of the Company for 10 shares of Wintershall Aktiengesellschaft with a nominal value of DM 50.-- each. The new shares are entitled to dividend as of the beginning of the financial year in which the conversion is effected.

9. The share capital is conditionally increased by up to 384,000,000.00 euros by issuing shares made out to the holder, divided into up to 150,000,000 shares. The conditional capital increase will only be carried out to the extent that the holders of warrants attached to the options with warrants issued by the Company on the basis of the authorization granted to the Board of Executive Directors on April 26, 2001 up to April 1, 2006 make use of their option rights. The new shares rank for dividend from the beginning of the financial year in which the option declaration becomes effective.

10. The share capital of the Company is conditionally increased by up to 38,400,000.00 euros, divided into 15,000,000 shares. The conditional capital increase will only be implemented to the extent that the holders of the 4,190,912 option rights issued by the Company in the period from April 30, 1999 to April 25, 2001 in connection with the authorization granted by the Annual Meeting in its resolution of April 29, 1999 to members of the Board of Executive Directors and employees of the Company and members of the management and employees of affiliated companies as a component of performance-related remuneration have made use of subscription rights that they have been granted. The new shares will rank for dividend as of the beginning of the financial year for which the Annual Meeting has not adopted a resolution on the distribution of profit retained (Conditional Capital BASF Stock Option Program BOP 1999/2000).

11. The share capital of the Company is increased conditionally by up to 38,400,000.00 euros, divided into 15,000,000 shares. The increase in the conditional capital will only be carried out to the extent that the holders of options that the Company grants to members of the Board of Executive Directors and employees of the Company and members of the management and employees of affiliated companies as a component of performance-related remuneration pursuant to the authorization granted by the resolution adopted by the Annual Meeting on April 26, 2001 make use of the subscription rights granted to them by subscribing for new shares. The new shares are entitled to dividend as of the beginning of the financial year for which the Annual Meeting has not adopted a resolution on the distribution of profit retained at the time that the subscription right is exercised (Conditional Capital BASF Stock Option Program BOP 2001/2005).

Article 4 Duration of the Company, Financial Year

1. The duration of the Company is not limited to a definite period.
2. The financial year is the calendar year.

CHAPTER II CONSTITUTION

A. BOARD OF EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Article 5 Composition, Rules of Procedure

1. The Board of Executive Directors shall consist of at least two members.
2. The Supervisory Board shall appoint the members of the Board of Executive Directors and determine the number of members. The Supervisory Board may appoint a member of the Board of Executive Directors to chairman of the Board of Executive Directors.

3. Resolutions of the Board of Executive Directors shall be passed by a simple majority, unless the law explicitly stipulates a larger majority. In cases where resolutions are to be passed by a simple majority and there is an equality of votes the chairman shall have a second or casting vote if the Board of Executive Directors consists of more than two persons.

Article 6 Representation

1. The Company is legally represented by two members of the Board of Executive Directors, or by one member of the Board of Executive Directors together with a "Prokurist".
2. Authorization to act and sign should be conferred on a Prokurist as a joint representation power only.

B. SUPERVISORY BOARD

Article 7 Function and Responsibility

The Supervisory Board shall exercise its function in accordance with the laws and the Articles of Association as well as with its Rules of Procedure. Its members are under equal rights and obligations, bound to act in the interests of the Company and are not subject to any orders or directions.

Article 8 Composition, Elections, Term of Office

1. The Supervisory Board shall consist of 20 members, 10 of whom shall be elected by the Annual Meeting. Simultaneously with the members of the Supervisory Board to be elected by the Annual Meeting, substitute members may be elected who take the place of any prematurely retired members in the order fixed in the election.

2. The electoral period shall end upon the termination of the Annual Meeting that formally discharges the Supervisory Board for the fourth financial year after the beginning of the term of office. The financial year in which the term of office begins shall not be taken into account.
3. By-elections for retired members not followed by a substitute member shall be effective for the remainder of the term of office of the member retired.
4. A retiring member shall be eligible for re-election.
5. Any member of the Supervisory Board may, upon giving one month's notice in writing, resign from office at any time. Any member elected by the Annual Meeting can, by a resolution passed by a simple majority of the Annual Meeting, be removed from his office prior to the end of the term for which he or she has been elected.

Article 9 Chairmanship, Committee according to Article 27 para. 3 of the Co-determination Act

1. The Supervisory Board shall elect a chairman and one deputy chairman. Election and removal from office shall be governed by the provisions of article 27 paras. 1 and 2 of the Co-determination Act. In the event any of these offices become vacant, a by-election shall take place. The deputy chairman shall have the rights and obligations of the chairman only if the latter is prevented from exercising such rights and fulfilling such obligations and unless otherwise provided for in the laws or the Articles of Association.
2. Immediately after the chairman and his deputy chairman have been elected, the Supervisory Board shall appoint the committee provided for in Article 27, para. 3, sentence 1 of the Codetermination Act.

Article 10 Notices, Conduct of Business, Quorum, Voting

1. The Supervisory Board shall establish its own rules of procedure. The notices for calling meetings, the quorum and voting shall be governed by the following provisions which may be supplemented by additional provisions in the rules of procedure.
2. The Supervisory Board must meet twice every half calendar year. The Supervisory Board shall as a rule meet at three-month intervals. A meeting of the Supervisory Board shall furthermore be called whenever business so requires.
3. The members of the Board of Executive Directors may, unless personal matters of such members are being discussed which necessitate an exception, attend meetings of the Supervisory Board in an advisory capacity.
4. Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be convened and the place of such meetings determined by the chairman or, if impeded, by the deputy chairman. All meetings shall be convened by at least a fortnight's notice in writing. The individual items on the agenda shall be specified so that it is possible to vote by correspondence. In urgent cases, the length of notice may be shortened. In the event that the chairman or, if impeded, the deputy chairman, determines this in an individual case, meetings can also be held using telecommunications or individual members of the Supervisory Board can take part in meetings using telecommunications.
5. The Supervisory Board shall only constitute a quorum if, after all members have been notified of the meeting, at least one half of its total members participate in the resolution. Unless the law provides otherwise, resolutions shall be passed by a majority of votes cast. In the event that a member of the Supervisory Board abstains from voting he participates in the resolution; the abstention, however, shall not count as a vote cast. If a Supervisory Board vote results in an equality of votes, and a second vote on the same subject also results in an equality of votes, the chairman shall have two votes.

6. The members of the Supervisory Board may, if prevented from attending a meeting, arrange for their written votes to be given at the meeting of the Supervisory Board by other members of the Supervisory Board. A vote transmitted by fax or electronic media is deemed to be a written vote. The same applies to the chairman of the Supervisory Board with respect to his second vote. The chairman of the Supervisory Board or, if impeded, his deputy, may cause a resolution of the Supervisory Board to be passed by obtaining declarations in writing or by cable or telephone or by other electronic media.
7. Announcements shall be made by the chairman or, if impeded, by his deputy on behalf of the Supervisory Board.

Article 11 Special Powers

1. The Board of Executive Directors shall require the previous consent of the Supervisory Board for the following transactions by the Company if they are outside the scope of ordinary business or if they are of outstanding economical importance:
 - (a) The acquisition, disposal or mortgaging of real estate, rights similar to real estate, and rights to real estate,
 - (b) the commencement of operations in new manufacturing and commercial fields, and cessation of operations in existing manufacturing and commercial fields,
 - (c) the issuing of loans and the taking of long-term credits in the form of debentures,
 - (d) the admission of sureties, guarantees and similar liabilities,
 - (e) the establishment and dissolution of branch agencies,

- (f) the acquisition of interests in other companies and the disposal of such interests, provided that the acquisition or disposal price of the interest in question exceeds 100,000,000.00 euros and is not a reallocation within the BASF Group.
2. The consent of the Supervisory Board required under para. 1 hereof may be given in the form of a general authorization covering certain kinds of transactions specified. Such authorizations shall give full details of the transactions contemplated and also their purpose and the period within which they shall be carried out.

Article 12 Remuneration of the Supervisory Board

1. A member of the Supervisory Board shall receive for the past financial year a fixed remuneration of 25,000 euros and also a remuneration of 3,500 euros for each 0.05 euro by which the dividend paid to the shareholders by the Company exceeds 0.30 euro. The chairman of the Supervisory Board shall receive twice these amounts and a deputy chairman one and a half times these amounts. The Company shall reimburse members of the Supervisory Board for out-of-pocket expenses and value added tax to be paid with regard to the Board membership. The Company shall further grant the members of the Supervisory Board a fee of 500 euros for attending a meeting of the Supervisory Board or one of its committees to which they belong and shall include the performance of the duties of the members of the Supervisory Board in the cover of a consequential loss liability insurance concluded by it.
2. If the Supervisory Board sets up an Audit Committee, each member of the Committee shall receive a further remuneration in the amount of 25,000 euros. The chairman of this Committee shall receive twice and a deputy chairman one and a half times this further remuneration.

Article 13 Confidentiality

1. The members of the Supervisory Board shall keep secret confidential data, reports and consultations as well as secrets of the Company, especially industrial and business secrets that become known to them in connection with their work as members of the Supervisory Board.
2. Upon retirement, every member of the Supervisory Board shall return to the Company all confidential documents of the Company still held by him.

C. ANNUAL MEETING

Article 14 Place

Annual Meetings shall take place at the registered office of the Company or in a town of the Federal Republic of Germany that has at least 50,000 inhabitants.

Article 15 Notice of Annual Meetings, Right of Attendance

1. An Annual Meeting shall be called with at least one month's notice prior to the day by the end of which the shares are to be deposited (cf. para. 2 hereof). This shall not include the day on which the notice is served and the final day for depositing shares.
2. The right to attend and vote at an Annual Meeting shall be restricted to those shareholders who deposit their shares during the usual hours of business at one of the depositories specified below. Depositories shall be those specified in the notice calling the Annual Meeting and also any German notary public and any bank serving as central depository for securities. Deposit shall also be deemed to have been effected at one of the above depositories if the shares have been blocked at any bank with the consent of any of the depositories named above. Deposit shall be effected not later than the end of the seventh day prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. In the event that that day is a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, deposit may be effected up to the end of the following working day.

3. If deposit is effected with a notary public, such notary public shall issue a certificate showing the numbers of the items deposited and such certificate shall be filed with any of the other depositories not later than one day after expiry of the period of deposit.
4. The shareholders shall be furnished with receipts evidencing the deposit of the shares or the filing of certificates of deposit under para. 3 hereof. Such receipts shall be made out in the name of the shareholder and specify the total of the shares deposited and shall entitle the person designated therein, or his duly accredited representative, to be admitted to the Annual Meeting.
5. The shares deposited and also the certificates of deposit filed shall remain in the custody of the depositories specified under paras. 2 and 3 hereof until the end of the Annual Meeting.
6. As long as share certificates have not been issued, attendance at the Annual Meeting and the exercise of the right to vote shall depend on the shareholders' giving notice to attend. The Board of Executive Directors shall specify details in the notice.
7. The shareholder may grant proxy in writing or in another way determined by the Company that shall be announced in each case by the Company together with the notice of the Annual Meeting.

Article 16 Chairman of the Annual Meeting

1. The chairman of the Supervisory Board shall preside as chairman at Annual Meetings. If he or she is absent, the members of the Supervisory Board elected by the Annual Meeting shall agree on a member selected from their ranks to take the chair. If no member of the Supervisory Board having been elected by the Annual Meeting takes the chair, the chairman of the Meeting shall be elected by the Annual Meeting.

2. The chairman of the Meeting may determine a different sequence of the items on the agenda from the sequence announced in the agenda. He shall determine the course of the proceedings at the Annual Meeting, especially the mode, form and sequence of the voting, in accordance with legal requirements.

Article 17 Resolutions and Elections

1. Each share shall, at an Annual Meeting, entitle the holder to one vote.
2. Resolutions of the Annual Meeting shall require a majority of the votes cast and, where a majority of the capital is necessary, a simple majority of the capital, unless a larger majority or further requirements are specifically stipulated by law. The Supervisory Board shall be entitled to make such alterations to the Articles involving only the wording.

CHAPTER III FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, ANNUAL MEETING, ANNOUNCEMENTS

Article 18 Financial Statements

1. The Board of Executive Directors shall, in the first three months of the financial year, prepare the financial statements and Management's analysis for the preceding year and promptly submit the same to the Supervisory Board and to the auditor. At the same time, the Board of Executive Directors shall submit to the Supervisory Board the proposal for the distribution of retained profit which it wishes to put to the General Meeting.

2. The Board of Executive Directors shall, in the first five months of the financial year, prepare the Group financial statements and the Group Management's analysis for the preceding year and promptly submit the same to the Supervisory Board and to the auditor.

Article 19 Annual Meeting

1. An Annual Meeting shall be held within the first eight months of each financial year.
2. The Meeting shall resolve in particular on the distribution of retained profit, on the appointment of the auditor, on the ratification of the acts of the members of the Board of Executive Directors and the Supervisory Board, on appointment of the members of the Supervisory Board, unless otherwise provided for by the law, and on the approval of the financial statements where required by the law.

Article 20 Distribution of Retained Profit

The retained profit resulting from the financial statements after depreciation, deferred items, provisions and reserves shall be distributed among the shareholders, unless the Meeting decides otherwise. Instead of or beside a cash distribution, a distribution in kind can be decided by the Annual Meeting.

Article 21 Announcements

Announcements by the Company shall be made in the electronic German Federal Gazette.
