Cautionary note regarding forward-looking statements

This presentation contains forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current estimates and projections of the Board of Executive Directors and currently available information. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of the future developments and results outlined therein. These are dependent on a number of factors; they involve various risks and uncertainties; and they are based on assumptions that may not prove to be accurate. Such risk factors include those discussed in Opportunities and Risks on pages 157 to 167 of the BASF Report 2022. BASF does not assume any obligation to update the forward-looking statements contained in this presentation above and beyond the legal requirements.

BASF’s Verbund site project in Zhanjiang is well on track

Project execution on time and in budget
- Second downstream plant (TPU) successfully started up in September 2023
- Construction activities stepped up, with currently more than 15,000 construction workers on site every day
- Stringent project execution; favorable sourcing environment in China is leveraged

Attractive financing conditions in China
- We are financing the Zhanjiang Verbund site with a combination of equity (20%) and debt (80%)
- Equity funded by dividends from existing BASF Group companies in China
- Debt financing will be based on the Chinese capital market and local bank financing
Status update on Wintershall Dea

- BASF stands by its strategic goal of selling its 72.7% share in Wintershall Dea and continues to evaluate monetization options
- Wintershall Dea is currently in the process of legally separating its Russia-related business; the separation is planned to be completed by mid-2024
- Federal investment guarantees in place for Russian assets
- For the business year 2022, BASF received ~€290 million as common dividend from Wintershall Dea
- Wintershall Dea is adjusting its company structure:
  - Annual cost savings of €200 million planned
  - Management board reduced from five to three members
  - Reduction of around 500 jobs company-wide expected
