

Curriculum Vitae

October 2019

Klaus Welsch

President, Engineering & Maintenance

Klaus Welsch was born in Gladbach, Germany, in 1963. He studied Chemical Engineering at the Technical University of Aachen, Germany, and earned his Ph. D. in 1992.

Professional Career

- 2015 President, Engineering & Maintenance, BASF SE, Ludwigshafen, Germany
- 2011 Senior Vice President, Engineering & Maintenance Asia Pacific, Shanghai, China
- 2010 Senior Vice President, Project Competitiveness of Investment, Strategic Planning, BASF SE, Ludwigshafen
- 2006 Group Vice President, Crop Protection, Europe/ CIS/Africa/Middle East, BASF Aktiengesellschaft (since January 14, 2008 BASF SE), Limburgerhof, Germany
- 2002 Group Vice President, Crop Protection, Global Operations, Research Triangle Park, North Carolina, and Limburgerhof
- 2000 Vice President, Investment & Strategies, Hong Kong
- 1998 Regional Manager Engineering, East Asia, Hong Kong
- 1996 Project Manager, BASF-JCIC Neopentylglycol Company Ltd, Jilin, China
- 1993 Joined BASF Aktiengesellschaft, Ludwigshafen as Process Engineer
- 1989 Project Engineer, Rud. Otto Meyer GmbH u. Co. KG, Hamburg, Germany
- 1989 Scientific Engineer at University of Aachen, Germany
- 1988 Scientific Engineer at University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia