

Environment, Health and Safety (EHS) Objectives

- Ensure employees health and safety on a sustainable Basis
- Zero lost time accidents for employees and contractors
- Continual reduction in lost-time accident/incident
- Zero occupational disease
- Promote EHS awareness and practice through motivation and training
- Reduce environmental impact and minimise waste considering life cycle perspective of products
- Full implementation of Responsible Care program
- Periodic self-assessment with risk based thinking in a systematic manner to identify and recognise both , strengths and areas of improvements
- Integration of all EHS standards in the planning phases of new products and processes
- To fulfil all applicable compliance obligations

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Rajesh Naik", with a horizontal line underneath.

Rajesh Naik
Director - Manufacturing