

BASF in Philippines

Overview

At BASF, we create chemistry for a sustainable future. In the Philippines, BASF has been enabling manufacturers in various industries since 1963. Today, BASF Philippines, Inc. is a leading supplier of chemicals in the country for industries including construction and coatings, automotive, health and nutrition, personal and home care, chemicals and plastics, and agriculture.

2017 Facts & Figures

- Number of companies: 2 wholly-owned
- Number of employees¹: 88 employees
- Sales of BASF Group Companies to customers in the Philippines 2017: approximately €119 million

Production Sites in Philippines

Name and location	Details
BASF Philippines, Inc., Carmona, Cavite, Philippines	Construction Chemicals <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Established in 2016• Concrete admixture plant

Research & Development

- BASF operates an agricultural research station which conducts research, laboratory studies and field testing of technologies as part of BASF's global research in the field of agricultural solutions.
- In December 2017, the Rice Knowledge Center was opened at the Agricultural Research Station, Laguna to help rice farmers boost yields and reduce emissions.

¹ Number of employees includes employees from all companies in the Philippines

Social Engagement Programs*

- BASF Kids' Lab
- Alternative livelihood program for poor farmers
- Annual scholarships in Agriculture
- Adopt-A-School: Water, Sanitation and Hygiene (WASH) Program
- Tree Planting: 50k@10 Years program, to plant 50,000 trees from 2012 to 2022

*(as of end 2017)