

Freeport, Texas

ADDRESS | 602 Copper Road, Freeport, Texas 77541

START OF OPERATIONS | Founded in 1958 as BASF's first manufacturing site in the U.S.

LOCATION | Located off Highway 332 and 288 in Freeport, Texas

SITE MANAGER | Brad Morrison

BASF Freeport manufactures products that can be found in more than a thousand different end-use products.

Products such as:

- Ammonium sulfate used in fertilizer
- Polyamide-6 used in fiber for carpeting and apparel, food packaging Film to improve shelf life and light-weight parts for vehicles
- Acrylic monomers are used to produce paints, adhesives, caulks and sealants
- Super absorbent polymers which can be found in baby diapers
- Oxo Alcohol/Polyalcohol products are used to make wood finishes, PVC siding, oils, plastic coatings, and herbicides
- The Dispersions plant produces architectural coatings, construction chemicals, and adhesives

Community Relations

BASF along with local industry neighbors participate in a Community Advisory Panel (CAP) with more than 20 informed citizens representing environmental and community leaders from the Brazosport area. BASF supports more than 75 organizations including United Way, Brazosport College, the Brazoria Wildlife Refuge, the Brazosport Chamber of Commerce, Boys and Girls Club and Brazosport ISD.

Economic Impact

- Total economic impact more than $760 Million **

Trusted and Certified

- ISO 9001 and 50001 certified

World Scale

- Home to more than 5 world scale manufacturing facilities

Year-end 202 data*

includes local purchases,, payroll and community giving.*

NUMBER OF BUILDINGS

27 plants

NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES

Employees | 912

Contractors | 725

CONTACT INFORMATION

(For Media Inquiries Only)

David Winder
BASF Corporation
 602 Copper Road
 Freeport, TX 77541
 (979) 415-6273
 E-mail: david.winder@basf.com

Tabitha Ray Walles
BASF Corporation
 602 Copper Road
 Freeport, TX 77541
 (979) 415-6358
 E-mail: tabitha.ray@basf.com