Winder named Manager of Community and Government Affairs for BASF in Freeport

FREEPORT, TX, January 20, 2022 – David Winder has been named the Manager of Community and Government Affairs for BASF in Freeport. He replaces Cindy Suggs Massoletti, who recently announced her retirement.

“I’m excited to work for a great company that has always been a leader in the Brazosport community,” said Winder. “BASF is committed to working together to create chemistry for a sustainable future, and I look forward to being a part of such a dynamic team.”

Winder joins BASF after spending the last four years with DuPont as the Water & Protection Global Operations Communications Manager. Prior to that Winder worked 18 years for Dow Chemical, including eight based in Freeport as the Public Affairs Director for Dow in Texas.
